

Teaching People With Disabilities To Drive (Refresher)

One day course for Driving Instructors who have been on the three day course 'Teaching People with Disabilities to Drive'

Queen Elizabeth's Foundation Mobility Centre is an assessment centre for people with disabilities wishing to achieve greater independence in outdoor mobility. We offer specialised training to people from around the country who have an interest in increasing their awareness of disability issues.

Benefits

Develops your Continual Professional Development portfolio and expands on the skills and knowledge gained on the course 'Teaching People with Disabilities to Drive'.

Who should attend?

Qualified driving instructors who are looking to build on the knowledge gained during the three-day course 'Teaching People with Disabilities to Drive'.

Course Overview

The programme includes:

- Refresher on disability awareness
- Hi tech vehicles (including electronic accelerator and brake, two and four way joystick and electronic steering wheel)
- How you can assist a pupil to learn to drive in their own adapted 'drive from wheelchair' vehicle
- Solutions to existing pupils difficulties in learning to drive
- Problem solving- Meet other ADI's and share your experiences of teaching disabled pupils
- Relevant legislation and updates on assessments, licensing and driving tests

Course information

|                 |   |
|-----------------|---|
| Duration | 1 day   |
| Cost     | £125 inclusive of course materials, certificate, refreshments and lunch for the day                    |
| Location | Queen Elizabeth's Foundation Mobility Centre, Carshalton, Surrey SM5 4NR (local accommodation list available) |
| When     | Wednesday 2 nd July 2008 (Fully booked)Wednesday 26 th November 2008                |

How to apply

Please complete the enclosed application form and return to:

Queen Elizabeth's Foundation Mobility Centre, Damson Way,
Fountain Drive, Carshalton, Surrey SM5 4NR Tel: 0208 770 1151